AIMBRY

Aimbry has taken a considerable leap forwards this year with the formal introduction and launch of revolutionary products and household names into the Aimbry lighting range.

Under the brand name 'Icons by Aimbry' the company now produce and offer lighting ranges of 'Portmeirion', the famous pottery manufacturer and 'Jenny Worrall Designs'. Both are highly respected, high profile brands. Aimbry have also revolutionised downlighting with a range of decorative adapters called 'SNOODS' together with a new type of fibre optic lighting by 'Stormfauna'.

Together with the renowned Aimbry lighting range and the new 'Signature' ranges, these products put Aimbry firmly at the forefront of lighting design and innovation.

For more information or a product catalogue please contact Aimbry's sales office, tel. 01484 489600 or visit our website www.aimbry.co.uk.

All the above products will be displayed on Aimbry's bigger than ever Lighting Show exhibition stand C10, Hall 9, NEC Birmingham.
